Amended Affidavit of Dawn Glasgow

Before me, the undersigned notary, on this day personally appeared Dawn Glasgow, a person whose identity is known to me. After I administered an oath to her, upon her oath, she said:

1. "My name is Dawn Glasgow. I am capable of making this affidavit. The facts stated in this affidavit are within my personal knowledge and are true and correct.

2. I am the administrative executive for Austin Montessori School ("AMS"), which is located in Austin, Texas. I have held this position for the past ten years.

3. As the administrative executive for AMS, I am familiar with the AMS's payroll reports for the years 2009 and 2010, which are attached hereto as Exhibit A. The reports are kept by AMS in the regular course of business, and it was the regular course of business of AMS for an employee or representative of AMS, with knowledge of the act, event, condition, opinion, or diagnosis that was recorded, to make the reports or to transmit the information to be included in the reports. The reports were made at or near the time or reasonably soon after the act, event, condition, opinion, or diagnosis that was recorded. The reports attached to this affidavit are the original or exact duplicates of the original.

4. The reports attached as Exhibit A list all of the individuals employed by AMS in 2009 and 2010. Because the reports are voluminous, for convenience, I have created spreadsheets that summarize the reports. They are attached hereto as Exhibit B. The spreadsheets attached hereto have been revised from their previous version (which were attached to my previous affidavit that is Exhibit A to Defendant's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment) to correct a very few, minor inaccuracies.

5. Based on my recollection, as well as the reports and spreadsheets, AMS did not employ 50 or more employees for each working day during each of 20 or more calendar workweeks in either 2009 or 2010. In fact, as reflected in the reports and spreadsheets, AMS did not employ 50 or more employees for each working day during any workweek in either 2009 or 2010.

6. With regard to each individual listed in the attached reports and spreadsheets, with the exception of Kjersti Wheeler and Judy Johnson, AMS exercised control over the details of their work.

7. In 2009 and 2010, at various times, the following individuals provided certain services to AMS as independent contractors:

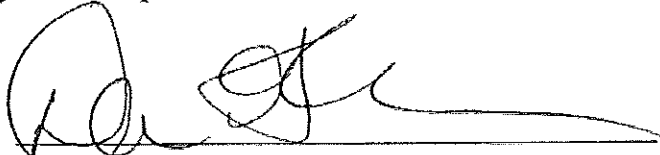

- a. Barbara Weiss (fundraising event manager)
- b. Calvin Carter (janitor)
- c. Charlotte Kroger (Montessori consultant)
- d. Cleotilde Maldonado (janitor)
- e. Donald Porter (IT support)
- f. Francisca Tejeda (janitor)
- g. Jerry Pippins (building contractor for improvement projects that required bids from subcontractors)
- h. Jerry Pippins General Co. (building contractor for improvement projects that required bids from subcontractors)
- i. Leslie Grove (licensed therapist)
- j. Miguel Reyes (janitor)
- k. Patricia Oriti (Montessori consultant)
- l. Paula McDermott (Spanish consultant)
- m. Lucinda Castillo (shuttle bus driver)
- n. Sheilah Murphy (special lesson instructor)

8. The individuals listed in Paragraph 7 were not AMS's employees because AMS did not control, nor did it have the right to control, the details of their work. Moreover, these individuals accumulated no annual leave or other employee benefits from AMS, and AMS did not pay their social security tax. Also, with regard to the janitors, Mr. Carter, Ms. Maldonado, Ms. Tejeda, and Mr. Reyes, while AMS provided cleaning supplies and tools for their use, they sometimes used their own cleaning supplies because they felt they were more effective. While AMS preferred that they use the cleaning supplies provided to them by AMS, as long as their own cleaning supplies were not harmful to children—which they were not—they were allowed to use them. AMS reported to the IRS all payments to these independent contractors, in 2009 and 2010, using Form 1099. See Exhibit C, attached. The Form 1099s, which are attached hereto as Exhibit C, are the only Form 1099s AMS issued in 2009 and 2010.

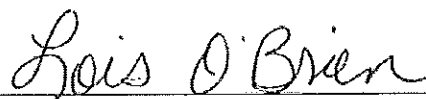

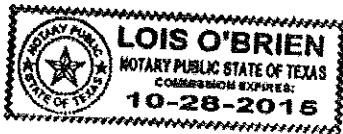

9. In 2009 and 2010, the following individuals provided music lessons to those AMS students whose parents coordinated and paid for such lessons:

- a. Stephanie Hunt
- b. Leah Zeger
- c. Brooks Whitmore
- d. Jenny Chang
- e. Debra Groves
- f. Lani Hamilton
- g. Megan Canney

10. The individuals listed in Paragraph 9 were neither AMS employees nor independent contractors. AMS did not control, nor did it have the right to control, the details of their work. AMS did not pay them to provide music lessons to its students."
